

Dear Parents,

This is to inform, that ACT is providing Free Digital Learning Resources for Students and Educators Impacted by COVID-19:

For Students & Parents:

- ACT Academy: ACT Academy™ is a free online learning resource for students seeking to improve their academic skills through individualized learning plans.
<https://academy.act.org/>
- Free Kaplan Test Prep: Provided by Kaplan, these ACT test prep sessions and events feature digital learning and live online instruction.
<https://www.kaptest.com/act/free/act-practice>
- College Research Worksheet: This free guide, offered through the American College Application Campaign (ACAC), helps students understand match, fit and cost when researching colleges and identifying which schools they want apply to.
https://equityinlearning.act.org/wp-content/uploads/2019/04/College-Research-Worksheet-editable_update-2019.pdf

For Educators:

- icurio: Through icurio®, teachers receive free, instant access to more than 360,000 curated, vetted and maintained standards-aligned resources from the best open educational resource (OER) providers.
<https://www.knovationlearning.com/school-solutions/icurio/>
- Social and Emotional Learning Home Connections: Parent materials and student worksheets are free core tools and strategies for social and emotional learning that can be used at home.
<https://www.act.org/content/act/en/products-and-services/act-tessera.html>
- HERA Science: An adaptive learning system for middle school students aimed to develop scientific reasoning and foster confidence in STEM.
<https://actnext.org/research-and-projects/hera-science-adaptive-science-learning/>
- ACT Academy: Teachers can use ACT® Academy to gauge their students' mastery of math, English/language arts and science concepts, providing essential feedback for individual learning.
<https://actacademy.act.org/profile/onboarding/create-profile?role=teacher>

For more information, please visit: <http://global.act.org>