

Ehsaas Madan of class 11-D recently participated in and achieved an individual gold in an interschool monologue competition, Goonj 3.0, that was hosted by the Grand Columbus International School. The event took place on the 30th of July, 2021; contestants of the monologue competition ranged from grade 9 to grade 12.

Each of the participants was required to record a video of them acting out the extract, 'The mind is it's own place' written by the infamous John Milton in his book, 'Paradise Lost'.

The submitted videos were judged based on the uniqueness of ideas and imagery, usage of vocabulary, accuracy and Fluency, as well as overall expression.
