Counselling

The image is a graphic design with a white background. A large, dark blue arrow points from the left towards the right, starting from the top edge and ending near the top right corner. The word "Counselling" is written in white, bold, sans-serif font inside the dark blue arrow. At the bottom of the image, there is a horizontal orange bar that points from the right towards the left, starting from the right edge and ending near the bottom left corner. The background is composed of light blue and white geometric shapes.

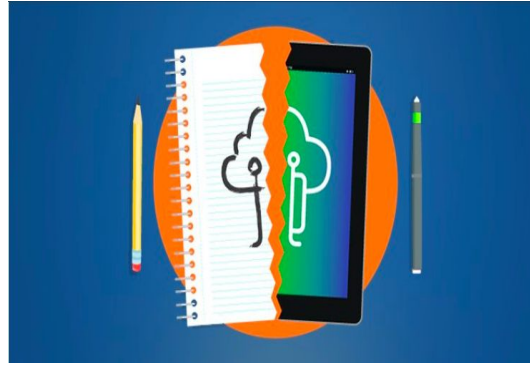

Things to Remember

1. Nothing about the past year has been normal.
2. Everyone is exhausted and scared to varying degrees.
3. Feeling grief over the loss of our previous lives is natural+useful
4. Most people are resilient
5. You do not have to do it all alone
6. Consider what your child and you are losing in the context of this pandemic, what you can do to strengthen those ties

Supporting your child in a time of disruption

Tip #1 - Don't let your child feel overwhelmed
Reduce unnecessary tasks in your schedules - not everything is urgent/important

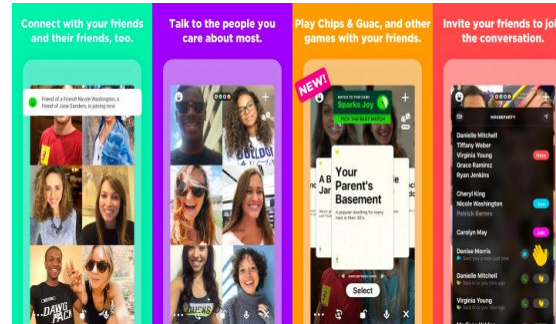

Tip #2 - Prevent digital overload from happening

Family Exercise/Game Time + Prescribed Daily Fun

Life is like an airplane. You have to put your own oxygen mask on first.

Tip #3 - Help your child fighting loneliness
Creating a community of support + communication

Tip #4 - Build a routine together

Big 5 - Sleep, diet, hydration, exercise and regulated electronic use/media consumption
