

Important Notice for Grades X and XII students

Dear Parents and Students

Term I Board exams will commence soon. Students are advised to attend their classes regularly as teachers will be revising the concepts taught and discussing the strategies to take their board paper effectively. Please note that since the examinations this time will be only MCQs in a new format, teachers will be discussing these in depth and it is essential that students attend these classes to enable them to perform well in these exams.

In addition to the revision for the term I Board exams , teachers will proceed ahead with Term II topics as well to ensure completion of syllabus for this academic session.

Please note the following dates:

Till 15th November- Up till 15th November , teaching of term II syllabus for grades X and XII will continue on a regular basis.

15th-24th November- Revision of topics for Term I Board exams.

22nd November- Last date of revision classes for Grade XII Legal studies students.

24th November onwards - prep leave begin
