

Ishaan Kapoor clears the short story writing competition held by Scholastic

Recently, Ishaan Kapoor of class V-E got selected for the Scholastic Quill Club Writers program clearing all levels of selection tests. He went through a ten day mentorship program and his story will now be published as part of a short story collection written by children from 9-17 years of age. The e-book and the printed books will be ready for release in the next few months by Scholastic. Happy reading!
